ADUCAH EVERING SUN MOON AND WERKLY.

PUBLISHING COMPANY.

INCORPORATED. F. M. FISHER, President. J. PAXTON, General Manager. ed at the postoffice at Paducal Ky., as second class matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: THE DAILY SUN. Carrier, per week mail, per month, in advance...

mail, per year, in advance....$3.00 THE WEEKLY SUN. by mail, postage paid ..$1.00 iress SUN, Paducah, Ky. Editorial Rooms:

Phone, 337 New Phone 358 te & Young, Chicago and New guar WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1.

POULATION STATEMENT.

910.
16 6726
186736
19 6728
20 6734
21 6738
226745
236760
25 6747
26 6758
276763
286771
29 6651
30 6645
175,16
673
5280
145

studen, who affirms that the foregoing gress, we do not know where he

PETER PURYBAR. Notary Public. My commission expires January their repetition a stumbling

Illinois again recalls to our mind it more remunerative breaking laws tagonism to them on the eve of a bitter congressional campaign. Some Well, it would be ungracious for make a spectacular record between the pilot ho Mr. Roosevelt to leave the hospit- now and next November, and where in yar Mation is concerned in unreservedly increases and other costs of operat- ecuted the novel scheme of placing sins of the New York "400."

OPPORTUNITY.

tions that prevent our proper concentration of effort and development of faculties to their most acute possibilities.

It was puny, near-sighted Theothe pastimes of his fellows on acpelled to go west, where in conquering the ills of the flesh, he deeloped strength of character, independence and self-confidence, and Puritans were driven out of Europe state commerce commission. Blessings and curses are only elative; and the circumstances we less to do with them than the rson involved. Jewels are hidden in the hills.

ot in caskets; and opportunity is found usually by digging in one as det

ROOSEVELT IN LONDON. To those who have burned with indignation, when some assuming Englishman, while enjoying our hospitality, has viewed with contempt our manners and ideals, and then returned to his insular home to write us down barbarians, that speech of ddy's in London yesterday was a | • • elight; though there was nothing in-

Iting in his tone or view. He did discredit British ideals, criticize gown?" he spoke sympathetically of the empire is doing in out quarters of the globe.

iterate the oft refuted opinion that he is a dangerous meddler and an impulsive, officious player to the galleries, will make the mistake that every adverse critic of the former president has made. For our part, we would like to know what is behind his speech in London yesterat Cairo after a sojourn of a year in

AN ERROR OF PRESUMPTION. are of presumption. Even the wisest, most experienced, most judicial are not exempt from the operation of the proverb: "Let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall."

When one contemplates the action into an agreement to arbitrarily increase freight rates just at this time, it becomes a matter of wonder that those men of affairs, with their cabinets of traffic experts, lawyers and financiers, bearing the most intimate relations with certain influential members of congress, could not foresee the very result which they are bringing about.

will be directly affected by the Taft program of railroad regulation, and sonally appeared before me they adversely; yet, if the president feeling toward any one who tresthe 3rd day of May, 1910, R. D. had needed just one good strong MacMillen, Business Manager of The boost to put his bill through contrue and correct statement of its could have applied for a better one elation for the month of April, than the railroads have given him. or treat them like criminals held in splendid effort, replete with better serve as steam gauges than as are passing through their annual governors on the engine of progress It may be difficult for the president to check hurtful radicalism, since the railroads have brought an organizathe fact that legislators often find tion of influential shippers into an of these congressmen have got to thur Hailey, an amusement park proservation of facts as they appear. We suspect that the railroads "I wish I could see as much with of the country to swing in behind eyes, as Helen Keller can with- them and check radicalism, when-Laut eyes", remarked a wise man ever the ery was raised from influenests, which could be expected to rereaches a point under sufficient provment of ethical standards.

This is not criticizing the state.

Theodore Roosevelt into a small versing any previous decisions, has pound Hailey on top. The blow on is the concentrated essence of the point of questions, involving property thought he had been bitten by the John Bunyan was put in jail to shown by recent decisions, uphold he was picked up it was found that write Pilgrims' Progress, and the ing implied authority of the inter- his left elbow was fractured.

Of course, the effect of the railincreases in rates, and we hope that to identify the many interests of the never will be able to figure out how men of the mental calibre of our triangle enclosing the triskellon, great railroad financiers could make both figures, whose conneatations are such a startling blunder.

STATE PRESS

One that can be managed or disparage their ca- in a high wind?—Courier Journal.

Slams For William. Just as Ohio seems cogitating over the obligation of Great the propriety of going Democratic ley & Co.'s clothing establishment, Egypt.

Selittle blocks in the selection of the selection and throw stumbling

SIGNS OF PROSPERITY.

June hold a rather important place, to us. her obligations in Egypt. He spoke it is the last month of the financial paying class for the first time.

One of the big events of the past of cotton. At intervals of two years of the fiscal year is only about a the country has had three cotton third of that of 1909. The crops which have gone above the month of the cycle, when it enters 13,000,000-bale mark. These were tomorrow, will carry a much more No one but the railroad manages yield is due in 1910, and the in-runner of 12 months ago.

On the government's calendar creased acreage promises to give it This prospect keeps prices down.

his mind freely to the Nationalists year, and when it enters the book-In March the balance in our for keepers at the national capital will us, but the margin was reduced to British African possessions, asso-begin to prepare to balance their $853,000 in April, and the present ciating with the colonial officials; accounts and write a new datemark indications are that when the acand he spoke without reserve yes- on their ledged. In the industrial counts are made up tonight the marterday in London, after an associa-world that month has only a minor gin for May will be found to be on tion of some days with British offi-distinction. Nevertheless, the story the right side of the account once daldom. Theodore Roosevelt knew which it will tell in 1910 will be of more. Manufacturers are figuring in pose of appointing a representative what he was doing, and knew what some interest to the public. Be- the exports to a larger extent than to go to London to protest against test which will be held at the High he was saying would not be distween tomorrow morning and Sat-lever before, but agriculture will the demand that all southern cotton school auditorium next Friday even pleasing to those, who have the best urday night the railway, industrial probably resume a little of its oldinterests of the government at heart. and traction corporations which have time prominence with the big crops Probably it required just this criti- their disbursing offices at New York which are promised to us. The traffic cism from the outside to drive the British public into support of a and dividends, as compared with strong governmental policy in Egypt. $75,000,000 at the beginning of them, and they ought to be. The in-We don't know all the facts; but June in 1909. These are figures creased purchases of our stocks and have great confidence in the discre- which were compiled by the New bonds in the past few weeks by tion, as well as in the boldness of York Journal of Comerce. This will England, France and Germany will bring the total for the calendar year check the tendency toward gold exthus far up to $186,000,000, as portation, while the prospects for against $153,000,000 for the corre-the listing of steel on the Paris sponding months in 1909 and $152,- bourse, which are again being talked firms, Knight, Yancey & Co., of De-000,000 for 1908. Several important about, is drawing the attention of catur, Ala., and Steele, Miller & Co., corporations are resuming or increas- foreign investors toward us to an of Corinth, Miss., by which the for- mations a short musical program ing their dividends, while others are extent unknown since the early boom eigners lost in the neighborhood of will be rendered by the etudents. enrolling themselves in the dividen-days of last June and July. After $7,000,000. the luli of the past two or three months in the iron and steel market, of the western railroads entering week or two in the financial world the upward movement in purchases was the breaking of the May wheat has been resumed. At the custom corner, and the decline in prices of house and from the collections of inwheat, corn and cotton. Wheat prom-ternal revenue the government's reises to be a much larger yield than celpts are making new high records. that of 1909. And, despite the late- Despite the big disbursements the ness of the season, the same is true deficit for the 11 completed months > passes on his preserves.-Lexington Herald.

The principal feature of the even $10, to the best of h's knowledge Indeed, we fear the boost was too ing's program was the address to good. The president, while progres- the graduates by Judge William sive, is conservative. He does not Marble, of Paducah, an address chardesire to make the railroads outlaws acteristic and worthy of him; a check; but to make them more effi- advice, marked with masterful elocient servants of the public. Yet, quence and ornate periods, approthe president is having difficulty in priate to the occasion. The con-convincing the general public that he is radical enough to suit its temper, as indicated by the attitude of the congressional insurgents, who better serve as steam gauges than as

Some Stories Around the Town.

Over in Metropolis last night, Ar-

moter, dreamed that he was fighting lions, and nearly killed his bed-felbetter to make it than on the railroad low, George Ladd, whose left elbow is gractured and may make his arm is fractured and may make his arm permanently stiff. Sometime during Newspapers are as safe as far as cir- ment of railroad officials that wage the night Hailey conceived and exienouncing an atrocious murderer, ing have made it necessary for them a herd of ferocious African lions as a preacher is in talking about the to raise the rates; it is only an ob. in a series of dens in the park, so connected by a tunnel as to give the pearance of a real jungle, when rather expected the business interests people could come upon the beasts principal offenders were crap shootunawares and enjoy the sensation of ers, breakers of the peace and being startled by their roaring, and drunks. The arrests were as follows: yet be perfectly safe. He forgot, Shooting in city limits, 2: drunks, however, to enclose one of the dens 33; gaming, 34; fugitive from jusnon reading her poetry. There is tial eastern quarters that national and the whole herd took after him. tice, 1; petit larceny, 3; breach ef portunity sometimes in restricprosperity was endangered, just as they have before; but they made the just as a huge man-eater sprang at deadly weapon, 6; drunk and disor-The loss of her sight protected mistake of alienating the very interbreath on his cheek, he ducked unspond to such a call, in the outset, der the covers with a scream of terand they have misjudged the temper ror, and seized Ladd about the 6; grand larceny, 3; mayhem, of the people. The public, always waist in a death grip. When he mooching, 5; breach of ordinance, conservative in the main, sometimes felt himself being dragged down, Ladd said, he had sense enough to pointing and flourishing a deadly dore Roosevelt, who could not enjoy ocation, where it courts martyrdom hold his breath until he came to the weapon. 1; insanity, 1; cruelty to and self-sacrifice, and just now it surface again, and then he struck out animals, 1; malicious shooting and would not take much to induce the for shore with Halley clinging to wounding, 1; jumping on and people to throw prosperity to the him. Ladd said he remembered an moving train, 2; escaping from chain winds until they secured a readjust- admonition of a drowning man's gang, 1; malicious cutting, 2; emstruggles, to knock him senseless piricism, 1; sleeping in hay loft, 2; and drag him ashore by the hair. malicious shooting without woundconsequently, he swung with all his ing, 1; housebreaking, 1; wilfully theory with a knowledge of a lot of with a subterfuge. He will insist on might on Hailey's nose and was deserting an infant, 1; vagrancy, 1; commonplace practical things. It regulation; and the supreme court grabbing wildly for his hair, when disorderly house, 1; sleeping in box was his bodily weakness that forced of the United States, while not rethey both struck the floor, 200- car. 1. compass and and afterwards gave unquestionably reversed its view- his nose awakened Hailey, who rights and the public's interests, as lion; but Ladd was stunned. When > Hundreds of people have puzzled roads' action will be beneficial to the at the meaning of the symbol promipublic, in now insuring the passage nently displayed on the street cars of the Taft regulation bill; and test- of the Paducah Traction company. ing the right in the federal court of It is a new symbol adopted by the the railroads to agree on arbitrary Stone & Webster company, serving no evil results will follow; but we company with the central organization. The device is composed of a dignified by great antiquity. The triskelion is symbolic of the sun. energy, life, motion and progress, while the triangle is suggestive of stability; the combination suggesting the idea of movement and energy confined by the limitations of The new symbol will be placed on all of the property of the company, and also on the stal

Mule Bit His Thumb.

y. However, the gov-of as a possible can-tempting mount an unbroken

Kentucky Kernels

Standford postoffice robbed. Henderson has a country club Ralph Lechner drowned at Coving-

Garrard family poisoned with ice cream.

Fire at Hotel Yancey, Hopkinsville Stationary engineers at Hopkinsville Friday. Dr. E. A. Stevens, Mayfield, injured in runaway. Press association meets at Middlesboro June 20.

Planters' association reorganizing n Graves county Miss Meumier Payne, 18. disapears from Owensboro Jailer Joe Noonan, Hickman, maries Mrs Rosa Hickson, Bardwell. Talmage Reynolds, of Bath county st a hand in the discs of corn drill. Bennett H. Young, Louisville, and Capt. W. J. Stone orators at Jeffer son Davis day at Fairview Memorial park near Elkton.

CITY REPORTS

(Coutinued From Page One.) 1; bond forfeiture, 5; immorality escaped convict, 1; attachment,

Fire Department.

May was a dull month for the fire received, while the loss by the blazes will not exceed $1,100. The firemen are unable to acount for the light month unless the frequent rains kept Central station firemen had a busy month, nevertheless, as they moved into their new home, and everybody knows that moving is work.

Patrol Wagon

The police patrol wagon made 99 trips during last month, 60 being made at night by Thad Terrell, and 39 in the day by Henry Seamon, the

MIL OLIVER WILL RECOVER.

Condition of Wounded Man is Satis factory.

Hopkinsville, Ky., June 1.-Lieut. Col. E. B. Bassett, who is in command of the detachment of troops guarding the home of Milton Oliver, in Lyon county spent last night and part of today here. He reports that Mr. William Smith, of R. L. Cul- everything has been very quiet since the soldiers arrived and established onduct her colonies in and electing a United States senator, is minus the tip end of his right the guard about Oliver's house, nothcivilization, and then it looks a little ugly for William thumb as the result of his experi- ing at all transpiring to break the catechise Gov- ence with a hungry mule Sunday. He serenity of conditions generally. spent the day at his mother's farm Oliver is getting along very well and that he will recover.

PROTESTS BILL

SOCIATION UP IN ARMS.

Bankers Make Unjust De-

Atlanta, Ga., June 1 .- For the pur be shipped on port bills of lading, ing. Eight students have entered the Southern Cotton Buyers' association will hold a meeting in this which will be awarded to the wincity next Thursday. The representatiner, by the Rev. M. E. Dodd. All tives of the association probably will be authorized to propose a surety bills of lading as now used.

The present demand of foreign bankers is the result of recent failures of two big southern exporting

It is claimed by bankers of the in- 8 c'clock. land cities that if port bills of lading | Invitations to the commencement are required, it would be impossible were mailed today by the graduates to do any amount of business from of the High school. The invitations Orleans, Savannah, Mobile and other printer. They are neat and attraccoast points practically controlling tive. the cotton export business of the

The question was discussed at a meeting of the banking committee of the Atlanta chamber of commerce today, and recommendations will be laid before the Cotton Buyers' association at its meeting Thursday,

The demand of foreign bankers that all future cotton be shipped upon port bills of lading is causing the gravest concern among Memphis cotton merchants. A committee appointed by President W. J. Abston, of the cotton exchange, is now working on the subject and will report its findings to a general meeting of the exchange to be called within the next

The recent failure of Knight, Yaney & Co., at Decatur, Ala, in connection with which there are many has emphasized the need for a change cotton, though Memphis dealers do dation of competitive railroads. not believe the remedy lies in the exclusive use of the port bill of lading day was over Brown's amendment would have the effect of practically ing the interstate commerce committee which has the matter now

So far as could be learned last night, no one from Memphis is going to the Atlanta meeting on Thursday

Why Cornelison's meadache Liver Pills will cure that. 10 cents. Guaranteed by all druggists.

T L Roeder, treasurer of the local lodge of the Brotherhood of be necessary. No vote was taken Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen today, will leave early tomorrow morning for St. Paul, where he will attend recting the attorney general to the annual convention. The delegates will be in session at least 20 days. Mr. Roeder will meet Mrs. Roeder, who has been visiting in Curtis appeared with the announce-Louisville, at St. Paul.

president of the Blacksmiths' Union. joyed a smoker at the Central Labor Union hall. Mr. Glover, accompanied by Mrs. Glover, is en route to Arkansas, and stopped over in Paducah to visit the local black- of measures relating to appropriasmiths. W. R. Davis, a machinist, has re-

Charles N. Grover, second vice-

Thomas Wooldridge, a machinist apprentice, is recovening rapidly department as only nine alarms were from an operation for appendicitis.

-Miss Clara Thompson, 827 Madeverything too wet to burn. The She is recovering rapidly from an from the amount of the bill as it ality operation.

DODD MEDAL

SOUTHERN COTTON BUYERS' AS- WILL BE AWARDED NEXT FRI-

Enter Declaration Contest This Year-Musical

Considerable interest is being manifested in the declamation the contest for the pretty gold medal are training carefully for the concompany as protection for through a difficult job to choose the winner, Last year there were seven stu dents in the contest, and this year there are eight, with a great deal more interest. The freshman class is especially strong, as there are five representatives entered in the contest. In connection with the decla-The contest will begin promptly a interior cities, with Galveston, New were received this week from the

YOU DON'T HAVE TO WAIT.

Every dose makes you feel better. LaxFos keeps your whole insides right Sold on the Money-Back plan every where. Price 50c.

RAILROAD RATE

(Continued From Page One.)

and the second as a curiosity. closed with the following statement: "We have been as free to commend what we thought to be right as we have been to denounce what we be lieved to be wrong.'

Aside from the adoption of the Cummins provision the action of the charges of fraudulent bills of lading, day consisted in the rejection, by a vote of 20 to 41, of Brown's in the methods employed in handling amendment, prohibiting the consoli-

The principal discussion of the This requirement, if adhered to and Lafollette's amendment requireliminating the inland cities of this mission to make a physical valuation country from the foreign markets, it of railroads. Previous to the vote street and Broads, on the Brown provision, speeches E. Dodd, pastor It is expected a more equitable were made in opposition by Bailey, emedy, which is at the same time Heyburn, Nelson, Hughes, Clay, Laas safe, will be recommended by the follette formally presented the physical valuation amendment which supported in a lengthy speech.

Valuation is Necessary.

He said that such valuation was necessary as a basis for fixing rates. The amendmet, he said, met the approval of the interstate commerce commission, and he predicted that if night from Misson defeated it would not be long until the railroads would be petitioning

Bailey and Borah and opposed by Elkins said it would cost $5,000,000 to make such valuation as was required, and that by the time it was finished another would

Lafollette offered a resolution di bring suit to enjoin the recent rate increases, but he had scarcely sented the measure when Senator ment that the attorney general had acted already in that direction.

Early in the day Owen delivered was in Paducah last night and with a speech in support of his resoluthe members of the local union en- tion for the election of senators by a direct vote

In the House. In the house nearly the entire session was consumed by a discussion tions to make effective the recent legislation creating the bureau of turned to work after being off duty mines. Up to adjournment $488,000 had been appropriated for this pur-The report of the conferees on the river and harbor bill was pre sented to congress today and proved. As finally agreed it carison street, has been removed to ried appropriations aggregating $51,her home from Riverside hospital. 947,718, a net reduction of $705,500 office, intoxication and gro passed the senate Temperature today: m.), 80; lowest, 48,

Will be extensiv this summercollars, too, will feature-you'll very extensive in our furnishin ment-the ship

BURIED THIS AR OAK GROVE CES

Confederate Veteral From Chapel to I church, officiated Walbert camp of he charge of the b Oak Grove cemers were: Messr H. Patterson, Jo Young, M. V. Che Joe Hancock and Ernest Browne, > Funeral of taken to Benton at 2 afternoon over the N railroad for burial. My 68 years old and died She was a mer bility. Christian church and friends here

Mrs. Rebecca Rn Mrs. Rebecca Russell old, died at her home in day afternoon of consu body was shipped to M burial this afternoon

GOLD RULE CHIEF ARI Kohler's Trial For Susper

Cleveland, June 1 .-- V ses to be one of the mos sensational trials ever city was begun before th ice commission today erick Kohler, suspended ice, appeared to answer to which have been filed age Kohler, who has a rep

the "best chief," and is tor of 'the "golden rule" matters, is accused of mi The charges against the filed last Wednesday and sepended by Mayor Bae Acting Chief of Police as forbidden any member ce department from sp; Konler or taking amy pa trial unless supoenaed. Kohler today filed with ervice commission a get

of the 23 charges against THE TIME-TRIED REME SPRING-ENNUI

Millinery at Half Price

We bought Mrs. J. W. Sherrill's stock of millinery at 50 cents on the dollar and are going to close it out at the same price. Don't pay ten dollars for a hat that you can buy from us for five dollars.

The Sale is Now On

E. A. STROW & CO. 312 Broadway